

CURRICULUM VITAE

Antonio Fiaschi è nato a Pisa il 26 febbraio 1942.

Si è laureato in Medicina e Chirurgia presso l'Università degli Studi di Padova l'11 luglio 1966, con il massimo dei voti; titolo della tesi: "Lo studio delle terminazioni nervose intermuscolari".

Si è specializzato in Malattie Nervose e Mentali il 23 luglio 1969, con il massimo dei voti; la tesi era intitolata: "Modificazioni della velocità di conduzione del nervo durante ischemia".

Nel 1970 ha frequentato l'Istituto di Neurofisiologia di Copenaghen, diretto dal Prof. F. Buchthal, dove ha approfondito la sua conoscenza nel campo dell'elettromiografia e della neurofisiologia clinica.

Nel 1983 è stato nominato Professore Associato in Neurofisiologia Clinica presso l'Università degli Studi di Verona.

Nel 1985 è stato nominato Professore Straordinario e successivamente Ordinario. Gli è stata inoltre conferita la carica di Direttore della Clinica Neurologica I dell'Università degli Studi di Cagliari, che ha mantenuto fino al 1988.

Nel 1989 si è trasferito all'Università degli Studi di Verona dove sta ricoprendo la medesima carica.

I suoi studi sono stati indirizzati ai vari aspetti della neurofisiologia clinica e alle possibilità di applicazione degli stessi alla Neuroriabilitazione.

E' stato membro del Consiglio Direttivo della Società Italiana di Neurologia fino al 1996.

Nel 1990 è stato eletto membro del Comitato di Coordinamento del Gruppo di Studio Intersocietario per la Neuroriabilitazione, che ha lavorato attivamente alla promozione e alla definizione di attività coordinate interdisciplinari multicentriche e alla ricerca in questo campo. E' stato inoltre Presidente della Società Italiana della Riabilitazione Neurologica (S.I.R.N.).

Ha ricoperto la carica di Presidente del Corso di Laurea di Fisioterapista dell'Università degli Studi di Verona, e dal 2004 è stato nominato Presidente del Corso di Laurea Specialistica in Scienze della Riabilitazione.

Nel 1998 gli è stata affidata la direzione del Servizio di Neurologia ad Indirizzo Riabilitativo presso l'Ospedale Policlinico di Verona.

E' Direttore della Scuola di Specializzazione in Medicina Fisica e Riabilitazione presso l'Università degli Studi di Verona.

Nel 2005 è stato nominato Direttore del Dipartimento di Scienze Neurologiche e della Visione dell'Università di Verona.

E' autore di oltre 300 articoli su peer review.
